

Bio

As a drummer Chuck Morris has performed with artists such as, Chaka Khan, Cameo, Gerald Albright, Norman Brown, Barbra Morrison Bobby Blue Bland, just to name a few. Some other accomplishments include Chuck's own band Super Slamm. This band consisted of heavy hitters such as, Gerald Albright (sax), Brian Bromberg (bass), Ron Powell (percussion), Rob Mullins (keys), Norman Brown (guitar), and Mike Hunter who later went on to become the lead trumpet for Lenny Kravitz and great Trumpeter Tony Guerrero. Some recordings that Chuck can be heard on are, Norman Brown's Stormin, Gerald Albright's Dreams come true, Bradford Marselis' Le Fonque' and several of the Southern Ca Reggae Band Common Sense's releases.

The work that Chuck is most known for was being the drummer on the hit, late night television show "The Arsenio Hall Show". During his six years on the show he's performed with artist from Liza Minelli, Berry White, Madonna, Boyz to Men, Mariah Carey, Herbie Hancock, George Duke, Grover Washington, Quincy Jones, Chick Corea, even President Bill Clinton. Another one of Chuck's impressive accomplishments is his Funky Reggae CD. After spending several years recording, performing and touring with reggae the band Common Sense, Chuck was inspired to put together his own 8-piece ensemble to record his first CD entitled, Standing On a Mountain. Chuck wrote 8 of the 11 songs his band "Chuck Morris & Freedom" recorded. He combined a blend of Funky reggae, Afro Jamaican, and a spiritual groove that leaves one wondering whether they are in a nightclub or on the white sandy beaches of the Caribbean. Standing On a Mountain, is a must hear. Chuck spent several years touring with his band Chuck Morris & Freedom. Following that period Chuck decided to take a long hiatus to get rejuvenated musically, and to see where God and the universe wanted to take him. Chuck has reemerged and is now on his new mission. Chuck has morphed from being not only a drummer, but to a great song writer, producer, entrepreneur. Chuck's first piece of work after his hiatus has emerged with his first song entitled, "Good Life". Chuck wrote and produced the song and track. He also filmed, directed and edited the video. Chuck's new song "Good Life" is a Funky, Bluesy, Jazzy, song with an R&B flair. "Good Life" will have you take a long look at your life and make you realize, how good of a life most of us really have. It will put joy in your heart and make you appreciate all the things that truly are good in your life. Good Life debuted on The Moth FM, UK radio station. The Moth FM CEO, Dr. Glyn was so impressed with Chuck's song, that he immediately put it on his radio show, and shortly after, into heavy rotation. It didn't take long before other radio stations started adding it. "Good Life" came out of the box, and shot straight to #1, and have been holding that position for 8 consecutive weeks. "Good Life" is now in heavy rotation on multiple stations throughout the UK. Program Director Robin A Jones, at WMEL Radio in NYC said " I knew "Good Life" was hot thirty seconds into it". It has just been pick up, and is now in heavy rotation on Smooth Jazz Radio satiation 87.6 FM in Valencia, Spain. Good Life the Video is rapidly moving through Japan, and after just a little over a month has reached almost 13,000 views and steady climbing.

Chuck Morris is now working arduously on several music projects simultaneously and is extremely excited about what is developing. He is receiving great support from many of his musician cohorts in bringing to fruition all the music in his head. Musicians such as Tracy Carter (Keys), Andrew Gouche' (Bass), Eric Walls (Guitar), Craig Thomas (Sax), Rock Dadrick (Percussion), Gordon Campbell (Drums) and L Young (Vocals). At this point and time Chuck Morris has a arsenal of projects he is currently working on and he will deliver. And don't be to surprise if it's not all music! So keep your eyes and ears tuned in, because you can never know for sure what Chuck Morris is creating, but you can be sure that it will be well worth your time.
